Assessment of application: Overview of rating scale

Your application will be assessed against the following rating scale. You should make every attempt to articulate:

- how the training in your application aligns to your workforce development needs
- how the training identified will address these needs
- how the training will support the worker in their current role, and just as importantly, how it will assist the worker upon reintegration to their home country.

For programs in tier 3 and above, careful consideration should be given to the value for money the training provides.

1 – Very poor	2 – Poor	3 – Adequate	4 – Good	5 – Excellent	Not applicable
Employer provides little to no evidence that the training expectation will be met. Much more information is required.	Employer provides some evidence that the training expectation will be met. Some further information is required.	Employer provides evidence that the training expectation will be met. Further information would be beneficial.	Employer provides detailed evidence that the training expectation will be met. Minimal further information is required.	Employer provides an exceptional level of evidence demonstrating that the training expectation will be fully met. No further information is required.	Only applicable for training expectation 3, if the employer is making a tier 3 funding application.
